
Is Europe ready to face hardships in support of Ukraine?

15:00– 15:30 Welcoming remarks

Viktorija Čmilytė-Nielsen, Speaker of the Seimas (Lithuanian Parliament)

James Nixey, Director, Russia and Eurasia Programme, Chatham House

Tomas Janeliūnas, Chief Research Programme Officer, EESC

15:30 – 16:30 Is Europe ready to face hardships in support of Ukraine?

- Are we ready to maintain this level of support if the war in Ukraine continues, even if things get harder for Europe?
- Are we ready to offer Ukraine membership in NATO and the EU?
- Is the European military industry ready to supply both Ukraine and NATO countries?
- Will Ukraine continue to receive Western support with a unilateral Russian ceasefire which crystallises Russian gains?
- What is the future of Russia's campaign for global influence and engagement?

Speakers:

Žygimantas Pavilionis, Chairman of Foreign Affairs Committee, Lithuanian Parliament

Joanna Szostek, Associate Fellow, Russia and Eurasia Programme, Chatham House

Matt Baugh, Director, Euro-Atlantic Security, FCDO

Chair: James Nixey, Director, Russia and Eurasia Programme, Chatham House

Event in partnership with:

EMBASSY
OF THE REPUBLIC OF LITHUANIA
TO THE UNITED KINGDOM